I first learned of Lily from Slade: Captive to the Dark, her brother's story, but nothing prepared me for her actual tale. The depth of her character, her pain, her spirit and her fight left me in awe. The atrocities Lily faced would have destroyed another, but she fought and found her strength. She found salvation in darkness. She found Zain.

He'd made me fight from the beginning, and showed me how much I could love it. How we could disappear from the lives we'd been trapped in and lose ourselves in each other. I longed for those moments the most. Especially now, as I stared out the dark windows of my lonely penthouse. My brother, Slade's old penthouse.
